

Paul Wigley

Advice Services Manager

Swindon Citizens Advice Bureau

Problems facing migrant workers in Swindon

- Local hostility and lack of community cohesion
- Provided with misinformation
- Lack of knowledge of rights
- Poor/no provision of translation and interpretation services

Problems facing migrant workers in Swindon

- Limited provision of 'English as a second language' services
- Abuse of basic rights by employers
- A compounding factor – lack of coordination in the provision of services